Wild Waves Theme & Water Park Opens May 5 for 138 Days of Fun

Dive-In Movies, New Special Events and Special Savings

Federal Way, WA (April 10, 2017) – It's time to start warming up those vocal cords and preparing for a screaming good time at Wild Waves Theme & Water Park as final preparations are underway for Opening Day, May 5. Washington's largest combination theme and water park is ready to roll with The Wild Thing and Timberhawk Ride of Prey coasters, the return of Dive-In Movies, and new special events like "National Hot Dog Day" and "Hula Nights".

For over 40 years Wild Waves Theme & Water Park has entertained families from throughout Washington and surrounding states. In 2018, guests will discover more than just 70 acres of rides, slides and pools to celebrate; new events, which are all included with park admission, include Memorial Day and Labor Day "Heroes' Weekends" featuring free tickets for military and first responders, "National Hot Dog Day" events, a "Splash into Summer" kick-off to pool season, "Hula Nights", a "School Supply Drive" and the soon-to-be-famous "Last Call for Summer" family party. The water park will also welcome many improvements including two new food locations, new walkways, new shade structures, renovated rest areas, more deck space for lounging, and colorful new Adirondack chairs.

"There are more than ten, fun, new special events at Wild Waves Theme and Water Park this year but perhaps the biggest news is the incredible value," said Todd Suchan, general manager. "Fun-seekers in the Pacific Northwest can take advantage of our spring season pass savings and visit the park all year for around fifty-cents per day."

Spring Savings Event:

Wild Waves Theme & Water Park Season Passes purchased by May 5 are as low as $0.50 per day.

Season Pass:                   $69.99 + tax each (includes unlimited admission, free souvenir bottle, free tickets for friends, free Dive-In Movies, free Fright Fest, free Holiday with Lights, and many other free special events)

Wild Waves Theme & Water Park opens for 138 days of fun beginning May 5 and will be open weekends until May 20. Starting May 26, the park will be open daily through September 3. The fun does not end when kids go back to school; Wild Waves Theme and Water Park will also be open this fall for Fright Fest in October and in December for Holiday with Lights.
